WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1899.

The oil wells at Erhart will be shot this week. The engines and other necessary machinery are on the grounds.

Horseless carriages are to be made by the Lorain Wheel Company. They will be made at the old brass works, and it is said many carriages have already been sold.

Another Indian reservation, which will no doubt be opened soon to homeseekers and prospectors, is that of the Shoshones, in Wyoming. It covers an area of nearly 70 miles square, along the valleys of the Big Wind, Little Horn and Popo Agie rivers and their tributaries in Fremont county. Allotments of land in severalty to the Shoshone and Arapahoe tribes are almost complete, and when each of the 1,700 Indians has received eighty acres there will remain over 2,000,000 acres for settlement. Much of this land is suitable only for grazing purposes, there being an extensive area of mountainous country and "bad lands" extending from the northern boundary of the reservation to the valley of the Big Wind river, which cuts through the center of the reservation from the northwest to southeast. But along the valleys of the Big and Little Wind and the Popo Agie rivers and their tributaries are great areas of Wyoming's finest farming land.

The Lorain County Firemen's Association will hold its annual meeting and parade at Elyria, August 23. The business meeting of the association will be held at 10 o'clock, the parade coming in the afternoon. ## BUFFALO BILL

His Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders Soon to Appear.
Low Excursion Rates.

Everybody who can possibly do so will doubtless take a holiday when "Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World" exhibits at CLEVELAND, JULY 24, for which important event the railroads have made special preparations to accommodate their patrons, and will offer low round-trip rates, and in some instances special trains will be run to take care of the big crowds that always attend this exhibition of heroic fame and just renown.

Differing, as it does, from all other exhibitions, Buffalo Bill's Wild West stands as a living monument of historic and educational significance. Its distinctive feature lies in its sense of realism, bold dash and reckless abandon. It is not a "show" in any sense of the word, but a series of original, genuine and instructive object lessons, in which the participants repeat the heroic parts they have played in actual life upon the plains, in the wilderness, mountain fastness, and the dread and dangerous scenes of savage and cruel warfare. So many new and thrilling features have been added for this season, that it is almost impossible to enumerate them all, but probably the most interesting is a vivid reproduction of the battle of San Juan, which will be presented with magnificent scenic effects and participated in by many members of Roosevelt's Rough Riders who actually participated in the gallant charge. In addition to all the usual foreign contingent that always travels with this exhibition will be seen for the first time in America a number of Filipinos and Hawaiians, the new American citizens, in all their savage picturesqueness. You will have a chance to compare them with the American Indian, and see them side by side with United States cavalrymen and artillerymen, German cuirassiers, Cossacks from Russia, the Queen's Own Lanciers, Mexicans, South American Gauchos, and last but not least, our own fearless cowboys. Buffalo Bill (Col. Cody) positively appears at every performance.

Kidney Diseases

CURED THAT HAD BEEN pronounced incurable

Mr. G. A. Stillson, a merchant of Tampico, Ill., writes: FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE is meeting with wonderful success. It has cured some cases here that physicians pronounced incurable. I, myself am able to testify to its merits. My face to day is a living picture of health, and your Kidney Cure has made it such. I had suffered twenty-seven years with the disease, and to day I feel ten years younger than I did one year ago. I can obtain some wonderful certificates of its medical qualities.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides, one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. Prayer meeting topic—"Religion and the thermometer." Jonah 4:3-11.

A diseased stomach surely undermines health. It dulls the brain, kills energy, destroys the nervous system, and predisposes to insanity and fatal diseases.
